Marjorie A. (Norton) Gould, 86, of Spring St. Hope Valley, RI and formerly of Warwick, RI died peacefully on Thursday, April 24, 2008 at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the wife of the late Arthur R. Gould.

Born in Sedalia, MO on July 26, 1921, she was the daughter of the late Robert S. and Fern L. Norton.

Mrs. Gould was a Cartographer for the Defense Mapping Agency from 1950 until her retirement in 1983.

Marjorie was a long time member of the Open Table of Christ United Methodist Church, formerly the Hillsgrove United Methodist Church in Warwick. She was a member and officer of the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping New England Section, a member of Geographic and Land Information Society, a member of Federation of New England Surveyors, a member of American Society of Photogrammatists, she served as vice president and president of the Earth Science Technologies Association and an active member of the National Active and Retired Federal Employees.

Marjorie enjoyed many years of hooking rugs and doing crafts at the Sweet Briar Study in Hope Valley, RI.

Mrs. Gould will be sadly missed by her son, Keith A. Gould of Stonington, CT and her brother Robert S. Norton Jr. of Seven Valleys, PA. She was the loving and devoted grandmother of Jeffrey K. Gould of East Providence, RI and Kimberly Wright of Burrillville, RI. She also leaves her great grandchildren, Xavier, Hannah and Hans Gould and Frederick and Karissa Wright.

Family and friends may attend a celebration of Marjorie's life on Saturday, May 3, 2008 at 11:00 am in the S.R. Avery Funeral Home, Main St. Hope Valley, RI. Calling hours are respectfully omitted.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Heart Association, 222 Richmond St. Providence, RI 02903
